Session Summary

On February 26th, the International Linkages Committee at NMIMS, Navi Mumbai, kick started its International guest lecture series with its very first guest- Dr. Anil Behal. The vision of “Unravelling the mirage”, is to enable students to bring in invaluable insights from Global connoisseurs and make the world a smaller place.

Our esteemed speaker for the debut of this initiative was Dr. Anil Behal. Dr. Behal is a senior faculty in Qualitative research, and the Managing Director of ORGDYNE Training and Consultancy, LLC (Philadelphia). He is an esteemed alumnus of Master’s in Management from American College, Bryn Mawr, Contemporary Psychoanalysis from Philadelphia School of Psychoanalysis, and master’s in Human and Organizational Systems from the Fielding Graduate University, Santa Barbara (California). He is actively involved in coaching doctoral students in new qualitative research approaches.

Dr. Behal spoke on a rather exceptional topic- Negative Capabilities and Leadership. Being an abstract concept that is not very commonly known, Dr. Behal explained it in 120 minutes in a very fascinating manner. He kept the attendees engaged with his interactive questions and remarkable wit. He provided important perspectives to future leaders on mastering the art of uncertainty and unknowing while being unfazed by the disputes of being in a leadership position.
