

Second workshop on Technicalities of Memorial Making and Research

- The Moot Court Committee conducted its second workshop titled “Technicalities of Memorial Making and Research” on 30th May, 2021. The workshop witnessed a great response from the students of School of Law, NMIMS, Navi Mumbai and there were a total of 86 participants. The workshop was held on MsTeams.
- Memorial making and research are the key components of participating in a Moot competition. The analytical skills a student acquires during the preparation of a memorial are extremely essential skill in their career as well. Therefore the Moot-Court Committee held this workshop online given the unprecedented times of a pandemic.
- Mr. Shubham Jain is currently working as a legal advisor at Linklaters LLP, a multinational law firm headquartered in London. An alumnus of the National Law School of India University, Bangalore, he graduated with 3 gold medals for Labour Law, Law & Economics and Taxation Law. He then pursued LL.M from University of Cambridge, Girton College with a First Class Results.
He has a teaching experience at reputed law universities including National Law University, Delhi and NLSIU, Bangalore.
Mr. Jain has been associated with several major national and international moots in the capacity of a judge, arbitrator, or coach. He has won the award for Winning Coach for the 14th Oxford Price Media Law Moot. He has been a part of reputed moot court competitions like, National Law School Trilegal Moot, 30th Jean-Pictet Competition on International Humanitarian Law, Macedonia, International Maritime Law Arbitration Moot, Hong Kong etc.
- The workshop commenced with the introduction of Mr. Jain followed by his extremely detailed lecture on the technical aspect of research and building a memorial. The workshop went on smoothly while Mr. Joshi gave great insight into the process of actually reading the proposition and then conducting the research. He later on spoke about how to curate that research into building the memorial from scratch. Importance of the guidelines of a competition were also discussed.
- The workshop was overall an enriching and enlightening experience. The discussion was engaging.
- The speaker invited question in the end and the discussion followed.
- The workshop ended with a vote of thanks.

NAVI MUMBAI